JACK FROST'S WORK

He Gets In Heavy Hits In the Rural Districts.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES GONE

Messrs. Harry and Lycurgus Hoffman, Residents of Cannon's Mill and New Waterford, visit the News Review Office and Give Particulars of the Dread Work Done By the Frost King—East Liverpool Protected By the Hills.

The frost king has, from reliable information, been getting his work in in great shape in the country districts surrounding East Liverpool. And this is not scare work, published merely from a standpoint of sensationalism, but a stubborn fact, and we are sorry to be compelled to chronicle the same.

Henry Hoffman, of Cannon's mill, well and favorably known in this section, called at the NEWS REVIEW office this morning and gave the pith of the following: "Yes sir, the frost was a powerful factor of destruction in our immediate vicinity. You can have some idea of its power when I state, and truthfully, that ice, half an inch thick, was formed on a tub of water at the corner of my residence. My grape leaves were green; but they are green no longer; they have changed their hue and put on mourning—black as my black hat. Some of the early sown grain has been severely nipped, while vegetables have been simply murdered—knocked out of existence. Blackberries, raspberries, strawberries, pears, plums, peaches and cherries are wiped out of existence. You can mark it down as truth, and I'll back it up, that Mr. Jack Frost did deadly work in our vicinity."

Mr. Lycurgus Hoffman, of New Waterford, brother of Henry Hoffman, accompanied him in his visit to the NEWS REVIEW, and gave expression to the following:

"We had a visit from Jack Frost in our community the other night, and we will not forget the fact for some time to come. His manner was exceedingly chilly. In fact, he is one of the coolest customers I have met for some time, and the universal verdict in the New Waterford district is that we want no more untimely visits from him. I had four acres of nice corn, and it is blackened and blasted clean down into the ground. Whv, sir, the leaves on the walnut trees had the very life knocked out of them and the trees look as if they were in mourning over some great calamity or disaster. We had warning that Jack might possibly pay us a visit, and a number of careful housewives protected choice plants by placing baskets, boxes and other protectors over the same, and Jack coolly knocked all such protectors higher than Gildroy's kite, nipping the life out of said fruits, vegetables and plants with the most consummate ease. I drove over from New Waterford, a distance of about twenty miles, and the same story of disaster greeted me upon every hand. You can judge of my surprise, however, when I approached your valley here, where East Liverpool is so snugly concealed or sheltered by the overhanging hills, and found that but very little damage had been done by the frost. I had the evidence of my own eyes in this particular, and have been assured by your residents that such is the fact. Brother and myself dropped in today at your office in order to see a daily paper, and to ascertain whether or not the fruits and vegetables throughout the land had received the same treatment accorded us at New Waterford."

An examination of the reports throughout the country demonstrate the fact that considerable damage has been done in different states by the late cold wave, although there is the claim made that speculators are making matters darker than they really are, for the purpose of forcing up prices of commodities.

CURRENT TOPICS.

The Sojourner Seeketh News Around and About.

Wandering around East Liverpool, the Sojourner has listened to peculiar criticisms respecting the ballots cast by councilmen at the last regular meeting, in connection with the appointment or election of Mr. Whan as policeman. It is an awful thing to criticize the actions or conduct of our solons, and one stands back appalled at the awful daring and recklessness of said critics.

Have you heard rumors about the city that there is a possibility that a Lexow committee may be appointed in East Liverpool, and that there are officials who are very nervous in consequence? Of course these rumors cannot have any legitimate foundation, as East Liverpool officials are, like Caesar's wife, above reproach. The inhabitants of Wellsville, jealous and sore over late exposures in connection with their municipal authorities, must have started these absurd yarns. Why, just think of it: we have actually heard people assert that a councilman was absolutely intoxicated while in attendance at a recent meeting of council. It is a shame that such slanderers are not compelled either to shut up or else prove their assertions.

Do you want ripe experience in knowledge of the characteristics of free and easy life, commonly termed Bohemianism? If you do, you can accomplish the desire of your heart in very limited time. Just take the last car from Wellsville to East Liverpool on the occasion of a public dance in our sister city. Two well known business men of East Liverpool had this experience a few nights since, and their accounts of the free and easy actions and speech of the male and female patrons of the mazy dance are rich beyond comparison.

It was exceedingly chilly the other night, as many of our readers are aware. It was exceptionally chilly to patrons of a special car on our street car line, said car being minus two large panes of glass, and the wind fairly whistled through the apertures, much to the annoyance and discomfort of the passengers, one of whom suggested that Superintendent Andrews must be an exceedingly cold-blooded and heartless official.

Agencies—local—for the sale of bicycles are numerous, and the sale in our midst has been exceptionally strong this season. By the way, there are a number of good riders. The Ceramic City Cycle club will no doubt make the interest in these vehicles still greater, and efforts will be made to do away with reckless racing or riding on our thoroughfares. Wheelmen have legal rights; but they must also remember that a pedestrian has the right to occasionally walk across our highways and byways.

CLEANING OUR STREETS.

What Officials and Residents Have to Say on the Subject.

The late rains and high winds, in company with our street commissioner and his abbreviated and too much condensed force of employees, have at least rendered our streets passable, although there is much yet to be done in the line of cleanliness. It is almost the universal verdict of our business men that a first-class street sweeper, or something that will accomplish the end desired—cleanliness—should be brought into play. Said an official of the municipality, when interviewed yesterday:

"Do I think a sweeper a necessity for our streets? Well, I am simply astonished at your question. It is an absolute necessity, from a standpoint of cleanliness, and I wonder that it has not been secured long ere this. Our streets have of late been almost filthy, and it reflects discredit upon East Liverpool and its government. Sweepers have been in use for some time in sister cities, and they have proved to be the very thing for the purpose, and I can't see why East Liverpool should not be in the swim in this particular. I am an earnest advocate of the street sweeper idea, and earnestly hope that one will be in operation here within a short time."

A number of business men and live citizens were interviewed along the same line, and the universal answer was that they were heartily in accord with any movement which would result in giving us cleaner highways and byways, and when fastened down to the street sweeper question, answered that they believed the sweeper would accomplish the end desired. Will our councilmen take the matter into consideration?

The Committee Met.

The Lexow committee of Wellsville met last night in a private room in the city building of our sister city, for the purpose of taking into consideration the voluminous testimony adduced. The matter must have required considerable time, as the committee did not adjourn until after 11 o'clock. In an interview with one of the most prominent members, an effort was made to ascertain the result, when said member jocosely replied that the only action taken was a resolution that the members should be granted a free trip to the sea shore, on account of the arduous duties performed at the late investigation. He afterward courteously replied that the result was to be kept a profound secret until Tuesday night next, each member promising, on honor, not to whisper it until brought before council on the night of May 23. Madame Rumor asserts that, in Chief Warren's case, there was a stubborn fight, two members being hot for Warren's suspension, two warmly in his favor, and the fifth quietly seated on the fence. We wait.

ONE ROOM NOT ENOUGH

Strauss Wanted the Whole Place and he Got It.

PRACTICING TO PLEASE POTTS

Was the Victim of Bad Liquor and a Desire to Own the River Shore and all That Was Thereon—The Family Flees and a Daughter Seeks Protection at City Hall. Latest News From War Correspondents.

War has again been declared in the river district, and this time it is the shanty boat population in the neighborhood of the Thompson pottery that is getting the benefit of the row.

As usual, bad whisky is at the bottom of the trouble. There are two shanty boats whose owners are named respectively Strauss and Potts; they are not on terms calculated to set a golden example to their neighbors, and although no real riot has broken forth, it is threatened at any moment. Several squabbles of more or less importance have raised the hair of passersby. The shanty boat people not interested are becoming used to it. Strauss procures lags, the size of which startle even the natives, and when he tanks up there is invariably fun in vast quantities. Then he passes Potts' river palace and the denizens here the soulful strains of "You Can't Play in Our Yard," with variations. The variations are not couched in language usually seen in quarterlies or Bible lessons, and it is often prolonged until the West Virginia hills are kept busy working overtime, and frequently all night, sending back the echoes. Something has been said about clubs and various other weapons too numerous to mention, while gore is reflected from the surface of the light which shines brilliantly in the night season. As an exhibition of his scrapping abilities and a probable warning to his friend Potts, Strauss filled up with Smoky Row ice water. Tuesday night and requested the family to occupy the space on the exterior of their erstwhile floating domicile. The family did not wait to argue the matter, as they had no doubt seen the head of the house in a similar condition before. One of his daughters has not succeeded in enjoying cold nights unprotected on the river beach, so she went to city hall. There she recited her tale of woe to Chief Gill, Officer Earle and Clerk Hanley. That was one Mayor Gilbert missed, but it can't be helped. Chief Gill detailed Officer Earle to go to the scene and if necessary put the unruly Strauss a few times upon the most tender part of his cranium and bring him to city hall. Before the officer reached the freight depot, however, he knew he was not needed. He recognized the fog-horn tones of Strauss' snore, and as the trombone performance was heard with due regularity, it was decided that Strauss was asleep. Such was the case, and he was left to slumber on in peaceful ignorance of his narrow escape from a speedy retribution.

Arrangements will probably be made for Captain Ansautz to run his boat and barge to the scene for the next performance; but in case cold weather interferes the trip can be made on the street cars. No extra charge will be made for reserved seats and aged residents accompanied by their great-grandfathers will be admitted free, and presented with tickets to the concert.

The following officers were elected: President, William Ruhe; vice president, John Wood; recording secretary, George Phillips; financial secretary, Fred Irwin; treasurer, Oliver Ashbaugh; sergeant at arms, Walter Locke; trustees, A. JUNIOR MECHANICS.

Some of the Questions the State Convention are Handling.

There are several important questions to come before the state convention of Junior Mechanics now in session at Mansfield and which meeting closes this evening. One of the most vexed problems has been the necessity of reducing the expenses of the state gatherings. The cost heretofore has been from $6,000 to $7,000 and the plan proposed is a reduction from the usual pay of delegates. Another attempt is booked to drop the word Mechanics from the name, leaving it Junior order of United Americans, so as to prevent further confusion with the Senior Mechanics. It is not likely that this will succeed, as it has been tried at previous conventions and was always defeated by a large majority. The Juniors number about 20,000 in Ohio and are constantly increasing their membership. The Liverpool council, Pride of the East, is among the best and showed a splendid record at the present convention. The delegates from this city are expected home this evening or tomorrow evening.

TO START MONDAY.

Two New Trains Over the C. and P., Stopping at This City.

A new schedule will go into effect on the Cleveland and Pittsburg road on Sunday next, including two additional trains. No. 380, east bound, leaves Bellaire at 1 p. m., arrives East Liverpool 3:20, arrives Rochester 4:05. The "5 o'clock train" will arrive at 4:01 instead of 4:06 and the 6 o'clock accommodation in the evening will go west at 5:32 o'clock, railroad time. New trains do not run on Sunday.

ALBRIGHT'S CATCH.

W. H. Brookes Arrested For Shooting For Fish—Others In It.

W. H. Brookes, an employee at the McNeil pottery, was arrested by Game Warden Albright this afternoon on a charge of shooting fish with a rifle in Little Beaver, at Grim's bridge, between May 7 and 10. There was a crowd with Brookes and warrants are out for the arrests of four others. Brookes plead guilty before Squire Rose and was given the lightest fine possible, $25 and costs, $29.60.

TRAINING HERE.

Prominent Wheelmen Testing Their Skill For Road Racing.

George E. Williams, of Pittsburg, and T. R. Edy, of Columbus, both registering from Beaver Falls, are here with George Hale, of the Beaver Falls racing team. They are practicing on the East End track, and each man has a race in view for the hard work he is doing.

Williams is the winner of last year's Pittsburg-Buffalo Press road race and Edy is prominent among Ohio wheelmen, being the winner of several races. Williams is practicing for two races, one to Buffalo; Edy is training for a road race in Pennsylvania and Hale is getting in trim for the Youngstown road race, which is not far distant.

Wedded.

Harry B. Welsh and Miss Nellie B. Rowe were united in marriage at the home of Rev. R. B. Whitehead last night, about 9 o'clock. The happy couple came to the parsonage, attended by Mrs. Minnie Kent and Miss Jennie Rowe, and the impression was that the affair was quite secret. Some one gave the wedding away, however, and an enthusiastic audience was assembled about the house ere the ceremony was concluded. As the party drove away in a barouche, old shoes and showers of rice followed them, accompanied by expressions of good will upon all sides. Our news gatherer, in order not to be behind the times, had married Mr. Welsh and Miss Rowe at an earlier hour yesterday. The pencil shaver sends congratulations and promises not to offend in like manner again. He received his information from a mutual friend of the wedded couple.

Old Residents Seriously Ill.

The father of Julius Stearns is lying critically ill at the home of his son, Minerva street, his affliction being dropsy. The gentleman is a German and aged 80 years.

Mrs. Baxter, a widow, of 215 College street, is dangerously ill with rheumatism and it is feared that at her advanced age she cannot recover.

Mrs. James Armstrong, an aged resident, is seriously ill at her home on Fourth street. Her recovery is a matter of doubt.

Closing the Deal.

Superintendent Morley, of the water works, is this afternoon closing the deal with the manufacturers for the high service extension and the move will undoubtedly be a go.

CYCLERS IN SESSION

An Interesting Meeting, With Gratifying Attendance.

THE TACK AND GLASS FIENDS

The Ceramic City Cycle Club in Good Condition, Financially and Numerically—Important Matters Brought Forward Last Night and Acted Upon—The L. A. W. Has a Nice Membership In East Liverpool.

There was a full meeting of cyclers present at city hall last night when President Taylor called the meeting to order. Routine business received attention and was satisfactorily disposed of. Then the matter of the East End race track was brought up. Mr. Grove, the proprietor, had submitted a proposition, asking $2 per year from each wheelman for the privilege of riding or training upon the track. This proposition was discussed pro and con, and was finally placed in the hands of a committee, with power to act, asking Mr. Grove for more favorable terms. Messrs. Bott, Harris and Manor were constituted the committee.

The Ceramic City Cycle club has now 16 members in good standing, while the L. A. W., or League of American Wheelmen, has 22 members in East Liverpool.

Action on colors or emblems, as well as upon by-laws, was laid over until next meeting, and W. B. Hill was added as a member of the committee.

It was the voice of the club that bells should be placed in use by all wheelmen, in order to avoid accident. This is a good move and should receive the sanction of all riders and be acted upon at the earliest opportunity. Many accidents could thus be avoided.

The reprehensible conduct of those who throw tacks and broken glass upon the highways and byways, with the intention of injuring wheels, was bitterly condemned. There is a heavy penalty for such offenses, and we understand that Mayor Gilbert and his officials will make every effort to arrest perpetrators, and that when arrested and convicted, the full penalty will be inflicted. Such arrest and conviction, accompanied by hot punishment, would be eminently proper and just. The scoundrel who would purposely injure a wheel in this manner, and possibly endanger the life and limb of the rider, would maim or injure your horse if he found a good opportunity.

President Taylor made the announcement that he understood the Cleveland & Pittsburg road was charging freightage on wheels, when accompanied by riders. He advised those who were thus compelled to pay to take receipts for the same, and he would communicate with the League of American Wheelmen in reference to the matter, as his understanding is that the League has made arrangements with the railroad companies to carry wheels free of charge, when accompanied by riders.

Meeting then adjourned, to meet again tomorrow night. A full attendance is earnestly desired.

Elected Delegates.

The Prohibition county convention met in Ferguson & Hill building today and the attendance numbered nine, with two women among the number. The following delegates were elected to the state convention: J. H. Faulk, William Fisher, Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Whitehead; alternates, W. E. Mercer, Charles Bough, Josiah Hollingshead, Reverend Huffer.

The county executive committee now consist of: Frank White, chairman; C. F. Bough, secretary; W. A. Hill, treasurer; Grant McKinnon, S. J. Faulk.

Secretary Stewart reported contributions for the past year $38.57, expenses $39.20; deficit in treasury 63 cents.

That Medal Contest.

The medal contest to be held in the Grand Opera House, under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, will take place on Thursday night, May 23, and a delightful time is anticipated. Through an error in yesterday's issue of the NEWS REVIEW, the contest was announced for tonight. Those in charge of the May musical festival desire us to state that the parties who will take part in the chorus of tomorrow night, Friday, May 17, will assemble at the Grand Opera House tonight, Thursday, May 16, for rehearsals.

Figures Which Tell of Liver-

SOME FIRMS WERE FORTUNATE

And Shipped Ware Without Ceasing—The First Four Months of the Present Year as Compared With 1893—Last Year Not a Consideration.

Few there are in the city who are not aware of the dull condition of trade in the potteries of this country and particularly of East Liverpool; but there are those whose inquiring minds seek figures and to satisfy their thirst for knowledge a NEWS REVIEW reporter consulted the records at the local freight department.

In 1893 the February shipments as compared with February of this year were about the same. March of this year there was 151 tons were shipped less than that of March 1893. Last month the improvement was encouraging. Only one more ton of ware was shipped than in the corresponding month in 1893, or about three hogheads in all. The first four months of 1895 as compared with the corresponding months of 1893 show a net loss on shipments of earthenware of 240 tons.
The year of 1894 is not a consideration.
Until Professor Wilson got, in his work trade was all that could be wished.
During the strike the blow was struck from which the potteries have not recovered. The decline started in May, and the big tumble was between then and June. In August, 1894, business began to pick up, and the following month shipments were better than in any month of 1893. The total loss during 1894 was 12,281 tons as compared with the previous year.
Two plants in the city have been fortunate enough to secure all the orders they could fill, and their records are those of a run from 1893 without a stop. Consequently their shipments have not fallen off, but increased.

The first half of the present month offsets the good showing of April. A calculation of the tonnage has not been made, but an estimate made from close observation of the shipments at the local depot shows that it is below the average, and will make a poor showing unless there is a sudden boom in trade.

As to freight regardless of classification, the month of April, 1895, shows a gain of 37 tons over the shipments of 1893, despite the fact that 1893 was considered a good year.

The above are the figures as given the NEWS REVIEW and show up the facts as they are.

Right on Time.

Accident insurance oftentimes proves to be a good thing to the party insured. Of course it is a painful thing to be injured, and no one desires to be a victim; but when accidents do happen, 'tis a redeeming feature to be enabled to gather in filthy lucre in consequence. And it's a good thing to be insured in a company which settles just claims promptly. Our townsman, W. T.
Tebbutt, was so unfortunate as to be severely injured while riding a wheel not long since. He was insured in the Standard accident and life insurance company, made his case known, and drew the sum of $17.86 for five days idleness. Mr. George Owen placed Mr.
Tebbutt's insurance. The assertion was made, at the time of Mr. Teb-butt's injury, that he would receive no compensation, as the accident occurred while he was riding a bicycle.
The Standard allows the insured to indulge in such recreation for pastime, wheel riding, base ball, etc., but shuts out professionals. Show true wisdom by insuring in reliable companies.

Reckless Riding.

We have reference to wheelmen who are in the habit of coasting on the inclines of the city, particularly on Broadway. Several narrow escapes have already been made, and a fatal accident is only a question of time if said recklessness is persisted in. The writer has stationed himself opposite the Potters bank, on Broadway, and particularly noted one young man, who will start at the rink in order to obtain headway, and uses every ounce of muscularity in his athletic frame in forcing the wheel to almost lightning like speed, keeping feet on pedals until the bank building is reached, then throwing limbs over handle bars and descending Broadway in an awfully reckless manner. If native good sense does not call a halt on his own part, our officials should call him down in his foolish work.

Thinks Campmann is Alive.

Among the Wellsville people who scoff at the idea of William Camp-mann having been murdered, is a well known resident, William Elliott. The gentleman was special officer for the "Lexow" committee, and served the subpoenas on the different witnesses.
In speaking of the Campmann mystery he said to a NEWS REVIEW reporter last night: "I don't believe Campmann is dead, and thought that the idea of his body being buried in the back yard at 619 was ridiculous. I knew Campmann, and he was a queer fellow. This is the third time he has mysteriously disappeared, but also the longest. Once he disappeared and left a note telling his wife he intended committing suicide by leaping from the Brooklyn bridge.

Three or four months afterward, when everybody believed him dead, he returned. I don't say that he will return this time, but I believe he is still in the land of the living."

Campmann's wife resides near Mc-Keesport, Pa., at the home of relatives.

At the Opera House.

Everything is in readiness for the first entertainment of the May Musical festival, to be given tomorrow night at the Grand Opera House, and the indications are for a crowded house. The sale of tickets has been very gratifying. You will do well to secure your seats at once. The opening on tomorrow night will be a grand chorus, from the Bohemian Girl; chorus embraces 50 voices. Miss Cummings will appear in choice selection of reading. Miss Harriet Worrell, of Youngstown, will render vocal solos.
Mrs. John C. Thompson will delight the audience with service of song.
Miss Mary H. Pringle, of Beaver, Pa., a talented musician, will charm those present with a piano solo. Miss Pearl Sebring will render vocal solo. Miss Montrose Hilbert will render piano solo. Chorus will please the audience during the evening. Don't fail to be present, accompanied by your lady friends. Those taking part in the chorus will rehearse at the Opera House tonight.

Name the Place.

An unsigned communication states that there is a prominent gambling den being operated in East Liverpool at present writing, but does not designate the exact location, although giving hints which point to a private room not more than 1,000 miles distant from the Diamond. The writer of the anonymous communication states that her reason for calling the den a prominent one, is that prominent men, young and old, are in the habit of nightly assembling there and gambling, and that prominent sums of money are lost and won, and that a relative of the writer has lately lost sums of money which very seriously discommode and embarrass him. The writer further asserts that officers of the law are fully conversant with the fact that said gambling place is in full swing, and that they wink at the knowledge thereof—in other words, saw wood. The full communication would be published, as the writer desired, had she signed her name thereto, as an evidence of good faith.

Fair and beautiful
—the woman who keeps at a distance the complexion beautifiers, paints and powders,
which soon ruin the face.
A healthy glow to the skin, a face without wrinkles and sparkling eyes, will be yours if you keep the system and the special internal organs in good condition. The young girl, or woman, often grows pale, wrinkled and thin, eats little, everything worries her, she complains of herself as aching and sore and as sleeping poorly. On she is troubled with backache, or a tender spine, with a bearing-down weight in the abdomen, or at periods she may be irregular, or suffer extreme pain from functional derangements.

Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., in his long and active experience, met many cases of this kind, for which he used a prescription which was found to cure such difficulties permanently in ninety-eight per cent of all cases. Having proven so successful, Dr. Pierce put his "Favorite Prescription" on the market, and it is to-day sold more largely than any other medicine for the ills of woman.

For all functional derangements, displacements, ulceration, inflammation, and the catarrhal drain from the lining membranes of the special internal organs of women, Dr.
Pierce's Favorite Prescription reaches the origin of the trouble, and corrects it.

Mrs. MARY C. CRIM, of Frankfort, Franklin Co., Ill., writes: "A few years ago I took cold, which resulted in female trouble, and affected my whole system. About a year ago, I took chills, had one or two a month; they were very weakening. Had pains in my sides more frequently in left side; gradually grew worse. Finally, I had to take to bed. I had a bad cough and could not rest. I commenced taking your medicine, took it about four months, taking seven bottles of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription and five of his "Golden Medical Discovery." My weight has increased, and I feel better and stouter than I have for years."

FOR INJURED REPUTATIONS

A Sensational Suit at the County Seat Results From the Too Hasty Words of Henry Burnett.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, May 16.—Two sensational damage suits were filed in court today.

The actions are brought by Charles Richardson and A. B. King for their daughters, Bessie Richardson and Leah King, each 12 years of age. It seems that on last Thursday afternoon the girls, accompanied by Misses Myrtie Jones, Morrow Jackson, Helen Wellington and Edna Burnett, the last named a daughter of the defendant, were at choir practice at the Disciple church in Lisbon. On leaving the church Miss Burnett missed her purse containing over $6. A search through the edifice failed to disclose any trace of it. About this time H. S. Burnett appeared on the scene, and on learning of the loss at once accused the five girls of stealing it from his daughter.
He said he would give them just so long to return the pocketbook or he would call the police and have them all searched.
The girls informed their parents of the accusations, with the result above stated, and it is probable that the parents of Misses Jones, Jackson and Wellington will file similar actions.
The different families are well known in this place, and they bear the best of reputations. Burnett is also a respected citizen and generally considered a man of some wealth. His alleged actions are a surprise to his friends.

Will Build a New Railroad.

WHEELING, May 16.—An important meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Monongahela River Railroad company and the Monongahela Coal and Coke company has been held at Fairmont. The important feature of the railroad meeting was the determination to build at once a railroad from some point on the Monongahela River road, probably Clarksburg or Fairmont, to the undeveloped coal and oil fields lying between the Monongahela river and the Ohio river in Marion, Harrison, Wetzel and Tyler counties to New Mar-tinsville or Sistersville, on the Ohio River road.

Supreme Regent Hazard's Report.

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—About 100 delegates, representing 21 grand councils, are in attendance upon the eighteenth annual session of the supreme council of the Royal Arcanum. The report of C. W. Hazard, supreme regent, showed that during 1894 the Royal Arcanum paid to widows and orphans death benefits amounting to $3,559,590, leaving a balance on hand of $163,478. On Dec.
31, 1894, the order had a membership of 159,507, a net increase for the year of 11,083. During 1894 16,509 new members were initiated and 1,344 deaths recorded.

Searcy Gets Eight Years.

STAFFORD COURT HOUSE, Va., May 16.—Charles J. Searcy has been arraigned for his participation in the Aquia Creek train robbery and plead guilty. After a statement that Commonwealth Attorney White for the state had agreed with Searcy that if he would confess and testify he should have only five years in the penitentiary, and a statement from Searcy in his own behalf, the jury returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his term of confinement in the penitentiary at eight years.

Again Attacking British Posts.

CALCUTTA, May 16.—According to a telegram received here from Simla dispatches have been received there from Dir in the territory of Chitral, announcing that the natives are again attacking the British posts. Only a few casualties, however, have occurred.
Lieutenant Dimond of the British force in occupation of the disturbed districts has been stabbed to death by a fanatic Boza in Wazeiristan.

THURSTON IS UPHELD.

Denial of Charges by the Hawaiian Government.

ENGLAND IS ACTING UGLY.

She Extends Protection to Two Naturalized Hawaiians. Formerly Britishers, Convicted of Treason—Trouble Likely to Result—Thurston Won't Be Returned.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—The steamer Australia from Honolulu has arrived with the following: Minister Hatch has handed Minister Willis his answer in regard to the recall of Thurston, which will go forward by this mail.
It is lengthy document and makes a general denial of the charges against the Hawaiian minister. The latter's course is upheld in every particular. Gresham is informed that Thurston will not be returned to Washington, but the letter does not name a successor.

The decision of Lord Kimberly regarding Great Britain's position on the question of citizenship and protection to those concerned in the recent uprising, has just been received in the cases of Walker and Rickard, convicted of treason. According to this decision, Walker and Rickard are looked upon as citizens of Great Britain, and subject to protection from that country.
It is understood the Hawaiian government will not admit for a moment these men are British subjects, and will accuse the consequences.

The Hawaiian oath of allegiance is as follows: "Section 452. Every foreigner so naturalized shall be deemed to all intents and purposes a native of the Hawaiian Islands, be amenable only to the laws of this kingdom, and to the authority and control thereof; be entitled to the protection of the said laws, and be no longer amenable to his native sovereign while residing in this kingdom, nor entitled to resort to his native land for protection or intervention.
He shall be amenable for every such resort to the pains and penalties annexed to rebellion by the criminal code."

Earl Kimberly's decision setting at naught this law has been made without asking for the Hawaiian government's decision. In view of the action of Great Britain in the matter of Nicaragua, it is feared the British may proceed to extreme measures without submitting the matter to argument or arbitration. If this course should be taken, the republic may be asked to release Rickard and Walker and pay a large indemnity as once it will be threatened with forcible occupation of one of the islands.

If there should be a forcible occupation, it would unquestionably be followed by insurrection and bloodshed, as the natives would believe it meant nothing but the forcible restoration of the ex-queen.

While the dispatch of Earl Kimberly simply stated that Rickard and Walker must be protected as British subjects, it goes no further, and makes no indication of the steps which would be taken if it is understood the government will not admit for a moment that these men are British subjects, and will accept the consequences. It would leave this matter to final arbitration as a final resort, but will not yield in any other way.

The many rumors regarding the arrival of a filibustering expedition have caused the government to charter an island steamer for the purpose of patrolling Hawaiian waters to prevent the landing of arms for the revolutionists.

A WHACK AT MEADE.

His Permission to Visit In Europe Revoked.

A COURT-MARTIAL NOT PROBABLE.

It Is Believed to Be Impossible to Obtain Testimony From Competent Witnesses—Civilians Cannot Be Compelled to Testify In a Naval Court-martial.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The secretary of the navy has issued an order revoking the leave of absence granted to Rear Admiral Meade several days ago.
When Admiral Meade became dissatisfied with his command and asked to be detached from the command of the North Atlantic squadron, he also asked for a leave of absence of a year with permission to go abroad, saying at the same time that he would also in a day or two ask to be retired. The request to be detached was immediately granted, as was the request for the year's leave of absence. Then came the request to be retired, but before any action could be taken the interview was published, which has caused so much difficulty.

No action has been taken upon the request for retirement, but the action revoking the leave of absence indicates that the request for retirement will not be complied with. The effect will be to place Admiral Meade on waiting orders, subject to any duty at any time which the department may desire to assign him. It was understood that the leave of absence granted Admiral Meade contained permission to go abroad, and he intended to spend the summer in Europe. He could not go abroad on waiting orders without violating the naval regulations. If he were not ready to respond to any order of the department when issued, he would also be subject to discipline for not obeying orders.

It is believed now that it is hardly likely that any action will be taken to court-martial Admiral Meade for his expression of disapproval of the administration, as it is believed to be impossible to obtain testimony from competent witnesses. Civilians cannot be obliged to testify in naval court-martial although their testimony may be taken if voluntarily offered. It is not believed that any direct testimony against Admiral Meade can be so obtained.

OPPOSED TO SIBLEY.

California Silver League Secedes From Warner's Party.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—Instead of the great results for free coinage aimed at, the visit to California of General A.
J. Warner of Ohio, head of American Bimetallism party, and Congressman Joseph C. Sibley of Pennsylvania, named by that organization for president in 1896, has apparently been productive of the opposite effect. The effect is the flat secession of the State Silver League from General Warner's national organization.

The trouble was caused by the attempt of General Warner and several congressmen enthusiastic for the remonetization of silver, to make Sibley the candidate of the white metal party in the next campaign.

Five Men Injured.

ATLANTA, May 16.—An accident, in which five men were seriously injured, has occurred at the new building erected by the Exposition Cotton Mills company. The men were working on the third floor and were raising a heavy piece of timber by means of a derrick, when the rope gave way. The timber fell and struck other timbers. This started the others and the whole inside work of the immense building was soon in ruins, with five men buried beneath the broken and twisted lumber. S. L.
